

Bipolar by Koehler

This book was written to help bipolar people and their loved ones better deal with their condition, and to help all people navigate their way through this always unpredictable, often wonderful and sometimes terrifying state known as life. Bipolar by Koehler is the mainstay story (in a larger collection) of a man whose life, beginning at age 30, was hijacked by Bipolar Syndrome. Using journal entries from that time, Koehler discusses how he survived this frightening and confusing illness using a combination of medication, support from his family and friends, and faith in God. Dear Lord, the second section of the book, is a collection of journal entries by the author about the bumps and blessings of daily life. The Road to Capernaum is the story of Koehler's involvement with Young Life Capernaum, a Christian group that works with disabled children as they explore their relationship to their faith and the often challenging world in which they must compete and thrive.
