

Home Sweet Homes: How Bundt Cakes, Bubble Wrap, and My Accent Helped Me Survive Nine Moves

Your toothbrush and deodorant are in a box marked Basement Storage, your great-grandmother's heirloom china is in pieces, and you're in your husband's underwear, making Hamburger Helper in a Little Tykes plastic frying pan in the microwave. You've just moved. Could things get worse? Probably. But then they'll get better, especially if you can see the humor in that hare-brained, heartbreaking and hilarious thing called moving. Home Sweet Homes: How Bundt Cakes, Bubble Wrap, and My Accent Helped Me Survive Nine Moves takes you along on Diane Laney Fitzpatrick's cross-country moves with colicky babies, sulky teens, dogs, frogs and goldfish. With 42 Moving Tips, Home Sweet Homes is a side-splitting survivors guide to moving, that is sure to keep you laughing throughout life's moving moments. Hey! The author will donate half of her profits from Home Sweet Homes to the National Military Family Association, for programs that help military children cope with frequent moves and separations from a parent.
