

Building Biblical Worldview: The Three Loves

Building Biblical Worldview: The Three Loves explains why and how to create and sustain great Biblical worldview for all students, in all subjects, and in all grades. The ideas are foundational, relevant, and give perspective to other worldview programs and tools. The concepts are simple, but deep and powerful. They come from God's Word and stand the test of time. The model works for all Christian schools at little or no cost and prepares faculty to abundantly implement a school's curriculum. There are three big ideas in the book: What Biblical worldview is and why it matters. The model of the Three Loves and how it works. How to grow in love for God, for students, and for subject to make a difference in student lives. Additional resources and support to implement the Three Loves are available at the buildingbiblicalworldview.com website.
