

American Women Speak [2 volumes]: An Encyclopedia and Document Collection of Womens Oratory

This A-to-Z compendium explores more than 150 American women activists from colonial times to the present, examining their backgrounds and the focus of their activism, and provides examples of their speeches. Covers issues from 1637 to 2015, representing minority perspectives and speeches. Surveys oration as a means of enlightening the public on the needs of the poor, disenfranchised, undereducated, and underemployed females. Introduces less familiar activists, such as Samantha Power and Ai-jen Poo. Includes illustrations; a timeline; an appendix of significant speeches identified by title, date, setting, and topic; and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources.
