

The Upward Moving and Emergence Way: The Gishin Biye Version (American Tribal Religions Vol. 7)

Upward Moving or Emergence Way is one of the central evening ceremonials of the Navajo Indians. Upward Moving Way - relating the origins of the Navajos, their emergence from down there into this world - also represents the attempt of Navajo hunter shamans to come to terms with the mythology of the Pueblo farmers they encountered when, centuries ago, the Navajos migrated into the American Southwest. This volume publishes fully, for the first time, the ceremonial as Father Berard Haile recorded in English in 1908. It describes as well a five-night performance of the ceremonial that Father Berard observed in 1908 and includes sketches by the informant and drawings of elements of the sent ratings associated with the ritual. ---from books back cover
