Learning English as a foreign language? How can you practice reading and conversation? Do you go to Facebook, and get confused by the bad spelling and grammar? Do you start reading a famous novel, and give up after a few long, hard pages? In American English Tutor Susan Call Hutchison, and I say there is a better way to enjoy reading English: Start with Simple Stories in American English. Ten stories, based on conversations, are full of things that people say and do in America: dating, going out to dinner or the movies, shopping, and solving the problems of every day life. * Read them aloud to practice pronunciation. * Read them with a dictionary to improve vocabulary. * Read them with a friend to practice conversation. And join me and hundreds of friends who Practice English Every Day.
