

COMEDOES

Comedoes is simply a comedy book. It has narrative descriptive stories of several characters, all written in a way to entice the readers into a state of unbounded laughter. Each story depicts different characters and their encounter with some of life's funniest moments. The names and characters portrayed in the stories are fictitious with no reference to any real life event or person(s). Some stories have unedited comments from some of our panel readers. Comments are written in the user's own expressive language, which might be a combination of several languages. With stories such as COME HOME STRAIGHT, FIRST CLASS, NO PARKING, AMERICAN EMBASSY (JAIL HOUSE) and BOSTON FISHING EXPEDITION, you are in for a roller coaster of laughter. There is a thesaurus at the end of the book to provide a quick look up for some uncommon words used in the stories.
