

Passion for the Piece: A Mothers Journey with Autism and How Faith Has Kept Her Afloat

The diagnosis of autism can be devastating. Fifteen years ago when her daughter was diagnosed with autism, Cyndi Sibley, a devoted mother of two and wife, became an activist in the autism community. Her mission was to erase this label from her daughters life. Countless interventions, therapies, and a strong determination kept her searching for a cure. roughout the many challenges she has relied on her faith to maintain a positive outlook. Experience a glimpse of her journey and be enlightened on the power of faith.
