

The Use of Exodus in Hebrews (Studies in Biblical Literature)

The Use of Exodus in Hebrews illustrates how traditions and hermeneutics have significantly determined peoples valuations of the relationship between the Old and New Covenants in Hebrews. By showing how the author of Hebrews uses the canonical revelation from Exodus to argue rhetorically, ontologically, and hermeneutically that Jesus Christ is the New Covenant priest in the heavenly tabernacle, this book offers an epistemological lens from Exodus to identify the correct view of the relationship between the Old and New Covenants.
