

Step Inside: The Unfiltered Truth about Listing and Selling Your Home

Listing and selling a home involves a large financial investment and transaction. It is not something to be taken lightly. Step Inside: The Unfiltered Truth About Listing and Selling Your Home dives deep into the truths about the real estate industry to help homeowners confidently hire the right agent, adequately prepare to list their home, proudly showcase their home, and successfully seal the deal to sell their home. This quick and easy read explains the real estate market, the roles of the listing agent, key pricing strategies, and the real estate contract, plus provides tips on home staging, moving and packing. This information-packed book, written by a top-producing real estate agent, will give homeowners the inside edge they need to navigate the path from a listed home to a sold one.
