

Facing the Ultimate Loss: Coping with the Death of a Child

With understanding and wisdom, Robert J. Marx and Susan Davidson explore the journey we embark on after the ultimate loss -- the death of a child. The authors delve into the difficult emotions parents face, including sadness, guilt, anger, powerlessness and questions about our faith. Drawing on the stories of the many people they have counseled, and their own experiences, the authors share the challenges of this unique passage through grief.
