

They Dont Want To Die: A Journey Into Suicide

The first part of the book takes the reader into the incredible life of the author. From being abused as a child to joining the Navy at seventeen, married at eighteen and divorced at twenty. From a motorcycle trip across the country to becoming an ordained Minister. His four brushes with death including two very serious suicide attempts that should have been fatal. The second part of the book is the authors narrative of the college course he now teaches in adolescent suicide prevention. He includes such topics as: Hospitalizations, How to Respond to a Suicidal Person, and poems and stories he received on his notsuicide website.
